Jerilyn's Jabbers

BPW Sisters,

Greetings! I hope this finds you all enjoying the cooler weather. In my travels yesterday I was noticing that the trees are already changing. It seems that fall has gotten here too quickly!

National Business Women's Week is coming up in the next couple weeks. It will be a busy, but fun, week. Please take note of all of the activities planned. I want to thank members Brownie Bennett and Marsha Herndon for planning this fun and exciting week for us. I would encourage you to participate in all events if possible.

The 89th Annual KFBPW Interim Board meeting will be held November 12-13, 2010 at the Park Mammoth Resort in Park City, KY. The Registration form and tentative agenda are included in this newsletter. I know you have already received this information by email, but I wanted to reiterate the importance of this event. As you will see, the weekend is packed full of activities and meetings. If you plan to attend, please let me know by Wednesday, October 13th so you will not only be able to get the early registration fee, and so that I can get rooms reserved at the discounted rate.

As always, please know that your executive committee is here to help you in any way and we welcome any comments or questions that you may have regarding our club.

Hope to see everyone at the NBWW Kickoff luncheon!!

Best Personal Wishes,

Jerilyn

REMINDER:

In lieu of our regular monthly business meeting, the October meeting will be in conjunction with NBWW Banquet. The banquet is scheduled on Monday October 18th at 6:30 pm and will be held at the Franklin Country Club. See you there!

Breast Cancer Awareness Month

BPW members and their businesses will be sporting pink during NBWW this year in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Each member will receive a red bow with a pink Awareness ribbon to display in their place of business during National Business Women's Week. This is designed to not only raise the profile of women's causes, but also to promote member businesses during the week's activities. Members will also receive pink ribbons to wear during the month in honor of those we know who have fought breast cancer.

KFBPW Interim Board Planned for November 12-13

A message from State President Janis Turner

It's hard to believe that fall is over ready upon us, time passes so quickly. Your EC is working diligently to assure an informative & fun Interim Board.

Please take a few seconds right now to complete your registration form and make your room reservation for the 89th Interim Board meeting to be held at Park Mammoth Resort, Park City, KY 42160 on November 12th & 13th.

We have tried to keep the costs as conservative as possible for your attendance. If you register by October 13th, your fee will only be $55.00 after October 13th it will be $65.00. Rooms are blocked until October 13th, after that time it may be hard for you to get a room because they are limited on rooms at the resort. Deadline to register to attend the seminar designed by the National Rifle Association on Friday November 12th Raising Awareness & Communications "Refuse to be a Victim" will be October 13th. This 3 to 4 hour crime prevention seminar normally costs $30.00 per person. Certified instructors help seminar participants better understand criminal thinking and provides tips on maximizing home, auto, telephone, technological & personal security. This seminar has been presented in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

This seminar will be followed by two modules of our Personal Development Program conducted by Bonny Manning & Phyllis Hargrave. The modules presented are Module 3, Communicate: Stand Up and Stand Out along with Module 10, Communication Skills in the Workplace. The program CD's are scheduled to be distributed at the workshop. This will be a wonderful opportunity. This will be a great benefit for our membership by utilizing this program to gain new members and retain current members.

Friday night will conclude with the BPW/KY Foundation Fundraiser where the Board has planned a few surprises for us and has promised a fun night while we are collecting money for a great cause.

On Saturday, we will have our business session along with workshops on membership, mentoring and filing of your 990N followed by a Health & Wellness Conference on Saturday afternoon.

We have also scheduled time for you to meet your Leadership Team and have one on one time to ask those questions which you feel could make your local more powerful.

T. J. Samson Hospital has graciously volunteered to perform health screenings for us at no cost along with professionals addressing health issues on Saturday afternoon. The sessions will be approximately 40 minutes long. The last session will end at approximately 4 P.M.. If anyone needs to leave prior to that time, you will be able to leave anytime between sessions that best suits your needs.

With all of the above planned I hope you can see how important it is for you to attend. This will be more of a training session. We can all learn from each other, this is what makes B&PW a driving force in our local communities & throughout the commonwealth.

Look forward to seeing you there!

See 2 page attachment at the end of newsletter for Agenda and Registration form.

Business and Professional Women/USA

National Business Women's Week

Standing on the Power of Participation

The annual National Business Women's Week® (NBWW) will be held October 17-22, 2010 to honor the contributions of working women and employers who support working women and their families. NBWW offers communities, companies and organizations an opportunity to celebrate the contributions of working women and companies that have made strides toward improving working women's lives in their communities. The week also provides an opportunity to call attention to women entrepreneurs, facilitate discussions on the needs of working women, share information about successful workplace policies, and raise awareness of the resources available for working women in their communities.

The concept of National Business Women's Week® originated with Emma Dot Partridge, Executive Secretary of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs from 1924 to 1927. The first annual observance of NBWW was held April 15-22, 1928, when National President Lena Madestin Phillips opened the week with a nationally broadcast speech. She stated that the purpose of the week was "to focus public attention upon a better business woman for a better business world." From this early effort, NBWW has grown into a nationwide salute to all workingwomen. In 1938, NBWW was moved to the third full week of October. U.S. President Herbert Hoover was the first president to issue a letter recognizing NBWW and the contributions and achievements of workingwomen.

We will be hosting a Kick-off luncheon on Sunday, October 17th at 1:00 p.m. at the Blewett-Bradley Building. All members and families are invited, the cost is $5.00 per person. For more information about any of the NBWW events, or to volunteer for a committee, please contact Brownie Bennett at 776-5783, Marsha Herndon at 776-4332 or Jerilyn Hippler at 776-3228.

Schedule of Events for NBWW

Good Food • Friends • Fun

at the Family Cookout

Despite the heat and humidity, there was a good turnout for the Family Cookout on September 16th. The cookout was held in lieu of our normal monthly meeting and members of the girls softball team were invited guests.

Approximately 40 people enjoyed the delicious food brought by our members and visited until long after dark with friends and family. BPW president Jerilyn Hippler was presented with trophies from the 9-11 Year old Girls Softball champs and 9-11 year old Division II champs, represented by Allie Forshee. She also presented a plaque with the team picture on it in appreciation for being their sponsor. Scott Forshee, who coached the team to victory, expressed his appreciation for BPW's financial support of girls softball.

With new members and several prospective members being in attendance, it was a great night together at the FS Community Park.

Chef Mitch did a great job with the burgers and dogs!

Pres. Hippler tries to call to order despite being harrassed by the Chef/her little brother.

Who let these guys in? They're brining down the mood! Just kidding, we were glad to have some brave men at the cookout, too!

Coach Scott Forshee and Allie Forshee present BPW President Jerilyn Hippler with trophies and a plaque in appreciation of their sponsorship.

Junior Miss 2010

Jacqueline Scates

2010-2011 Simpson County Junior Miss is Jacqueline Scates. She is the daughter of Anna and Don Scates and hopes to attend UK studying Civil Engineering and Architecture. Jacqueline is shown here with her fellow contestants and (inset) with Mariah Rowland, 2009-2010 Junior Miss winner.

A big thank-you goes out to all of our members who assisted by volunteering their time, talents, food, money and anything else it took to continue BPW's involvement and sponsorship of this event. This year's contestants were a great group of girls and all of them should be commended.
